Summer Street exists to create and facilitate opportunities for people with intellectual disability - one person at a time. We are driven by the desire for an equal playing field where everyone is treated with fairness and respect - including those with intellectual disability. 200 people with diverse needs participate in our full spectrum of programs including 50 who are employed in our social enterprises. We have over 30 staff; 2000 donors; thousands of customers; and a network of partners. Because of you, we are a vibrant part of the community.
